Lessons 03

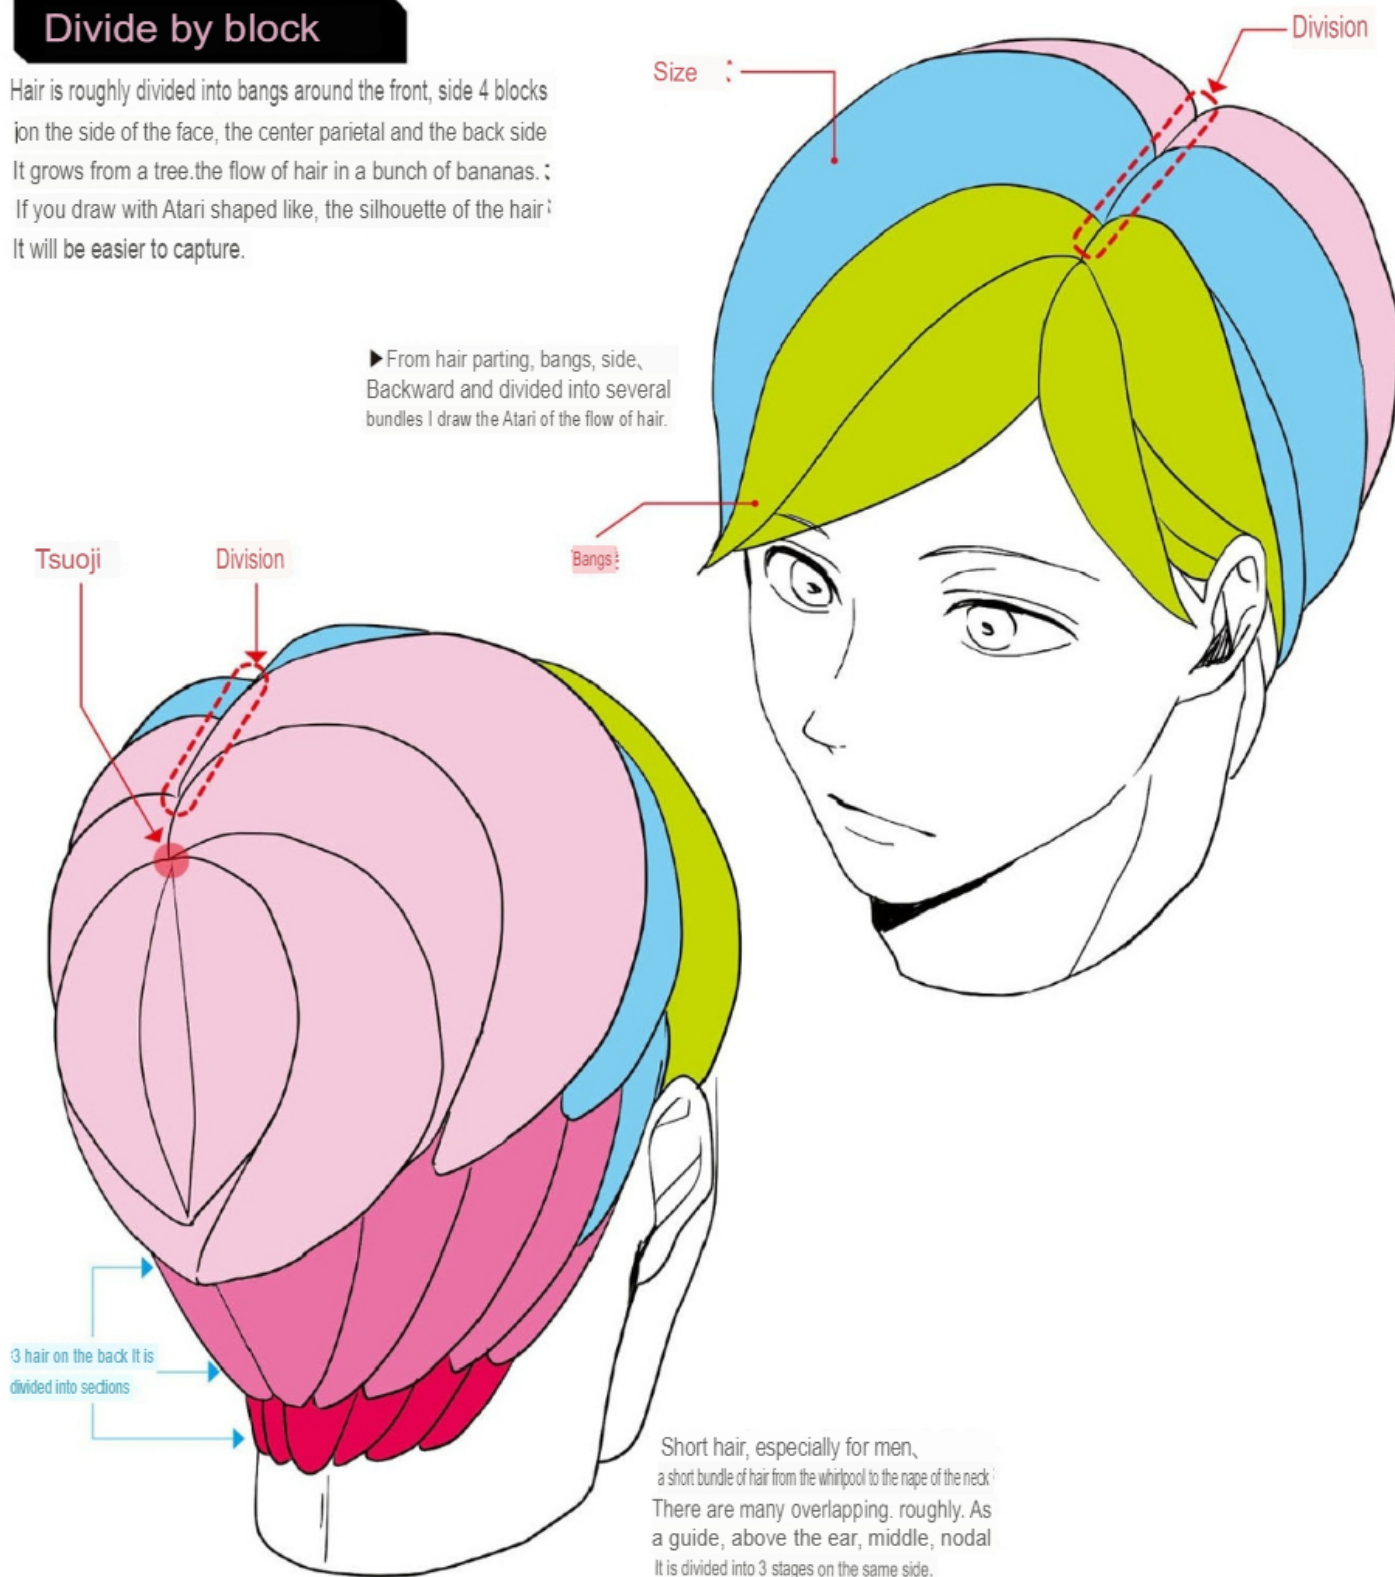

How to capture the flow of hair

In order to express hair in pictures, it is important to understand where and in what flow the hair grows on the head. In this article, we will introduce a simplified method of capturing hair in blocks and the flow of hair growth.

Divide by block

Hair is roughly divided into bangs around the front, side 4 blocks join the side of the face, the center parietal and the back side. It grows from a tree, the flow of hair in a bunch of bananas. If you draw with Atari shaped like, the silhouette of the hair, it will be easier to capture.

► From hair parting, bangs, side, Backward and divided into several bundles I draw the Atari of the flow of hair.

>Tsumuji

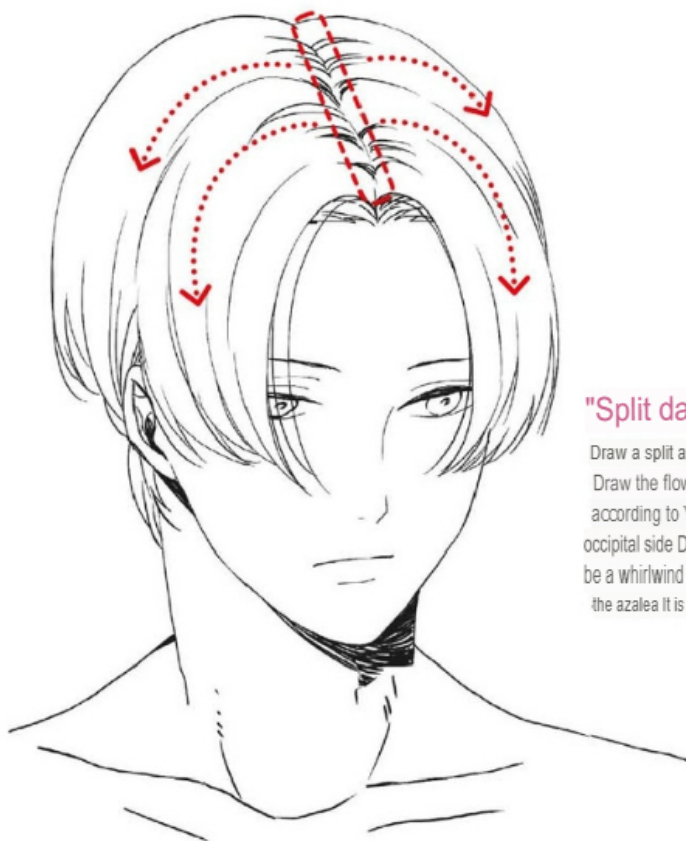

in the parietal and occipital regions

The position of the muji is determined, and from there to the shape of the head Draw a stream of hair bundles or hairs radially along It's a good idea. However, all the hairs start in the same position. If you draw it as a dot, you will feel uncomfortable, so you can draw it as a tsumuji the hair that is separated from the hair grows along the shape of the head It is necessary to shift the position of the device.

"Split day

Draw a split atari at the top of the head, and the line Draw the flow of hair along the shape of the head according to You can do it. Of the ends of the split, occipital side Draw the hair on the back side, so it will be a whirlwind when you decide 2 of the division and the azalea It is easy to catch the flow of hair.

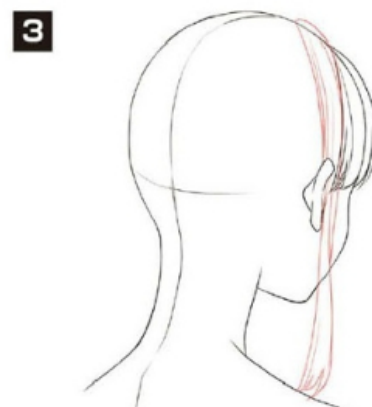

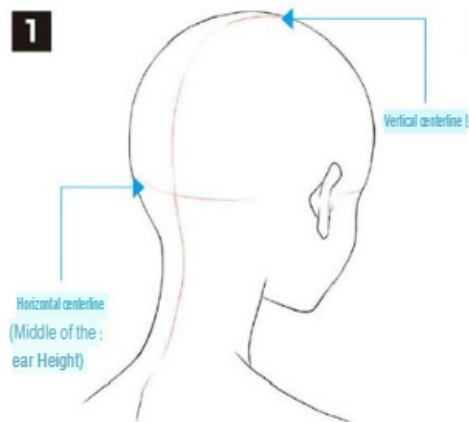

> Hairline

Starting from the hairline of the frontal part, the hair i draw the flow of hair towards the end You can do it. Make bangs, in a strong wind Blown, etc., depending on the situation of the hair tip The flow of the hair changes as a result.

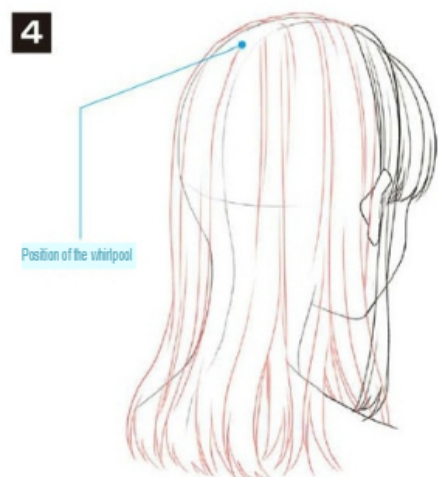

Hair looks different depending on the length and angle, but the basic idea of dividing it into bangs, side and back hair remains the same. It is not. Based on the contents of the preceding paragraph, let's look at how to draw medium hair for women and short hair for men.

Female · Back side

A Draw the outline of the head and the bangs seen from the back of the head like the front side do not see the hairline, but like the ear Mu bangs, draw the hair on the side ahead of the ear. Take the center line atari conscious of the roundness of the part. Remember that the edges of the bangs come a little more on the front side. From the top of the head along the shape of the head, rounded : And the shape will be easier to grasp. Let's draw the flow of hair.

Completed

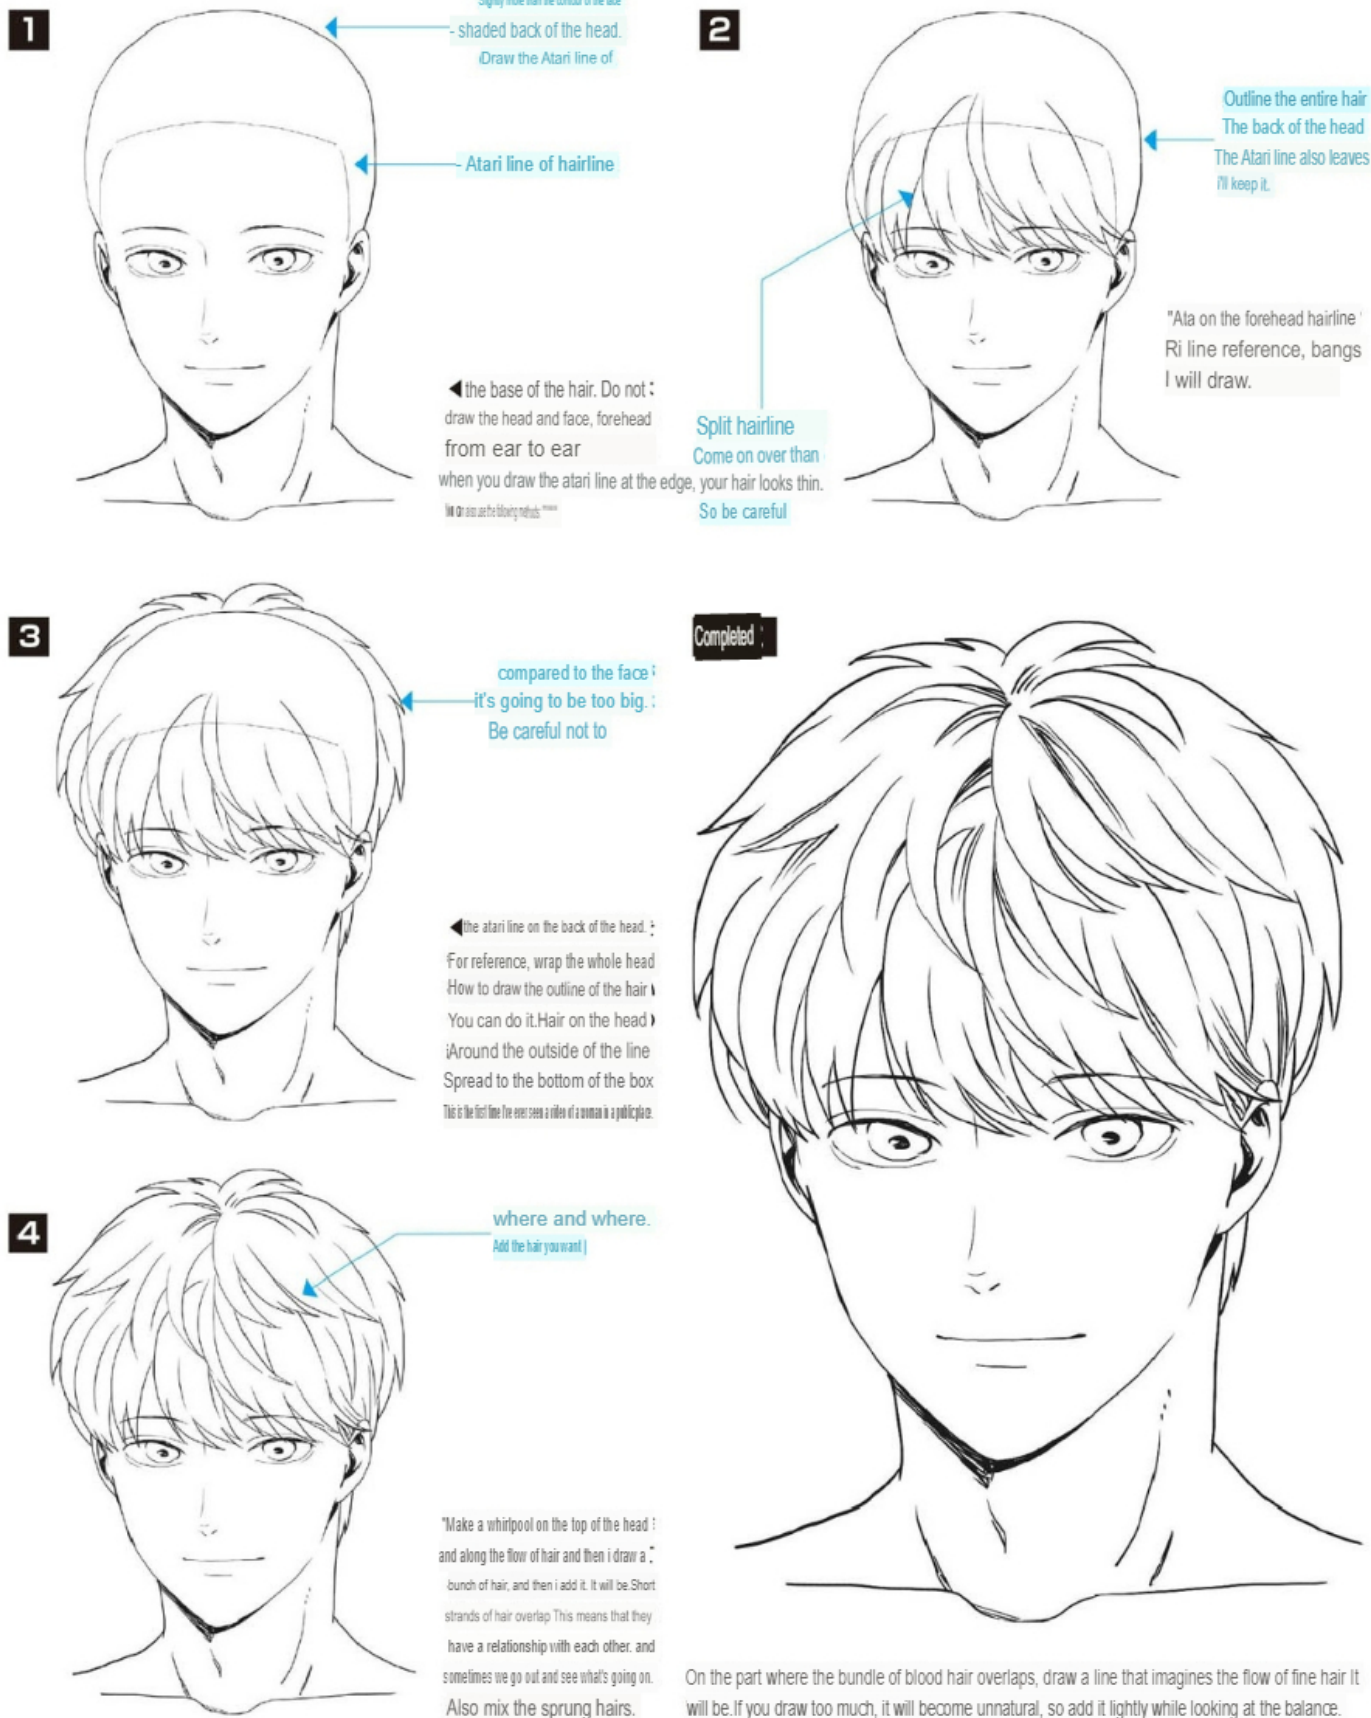

The direction in which the hair grows with reference to the atari of the muzumuji and the division I will draw the back hair while conscious.

▲Bangs, side and back hair to give a three-dimensional and natural feeling. We will add soft play hair each.

How to add shadows

In order to express the texture of the hair, how to add shadows becomes very important. Here is a single color with a darker color than the hair color. Let's introduce how to express the shadow of 2 patterns by adding a shadow with a line.

Female: Front side

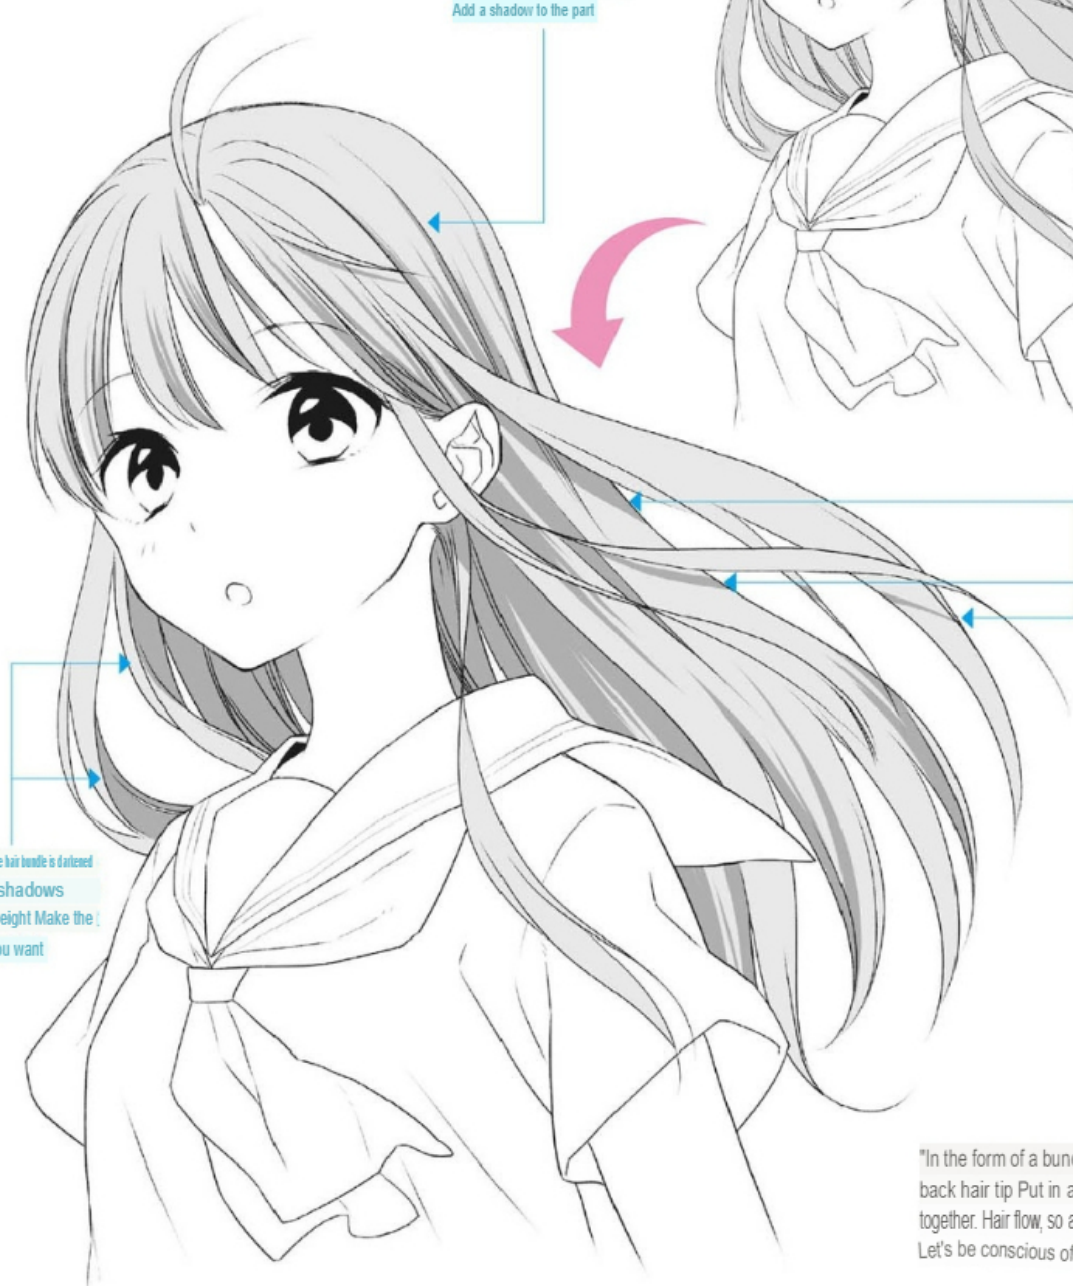

The main place where shadows can be in long hair is the bangs, the back of the hair.

The inner part, the part where the hair overlaps, the tip of the hair, etc.

It's a good idea. Especially the inner side of the back hair will have a lot of shadow area.

Hair affected by wind or water :

Even without moving the body, movement occurs in the hair due to the influence of wind and water flowing around it. Here is a natural blow. The effects of artificial wind, such as wind and dryer, on hair related to water, such as underwater, will be explained.

Weak wind

The wind blowing is divided into weak and strong. hair blown by the wind :

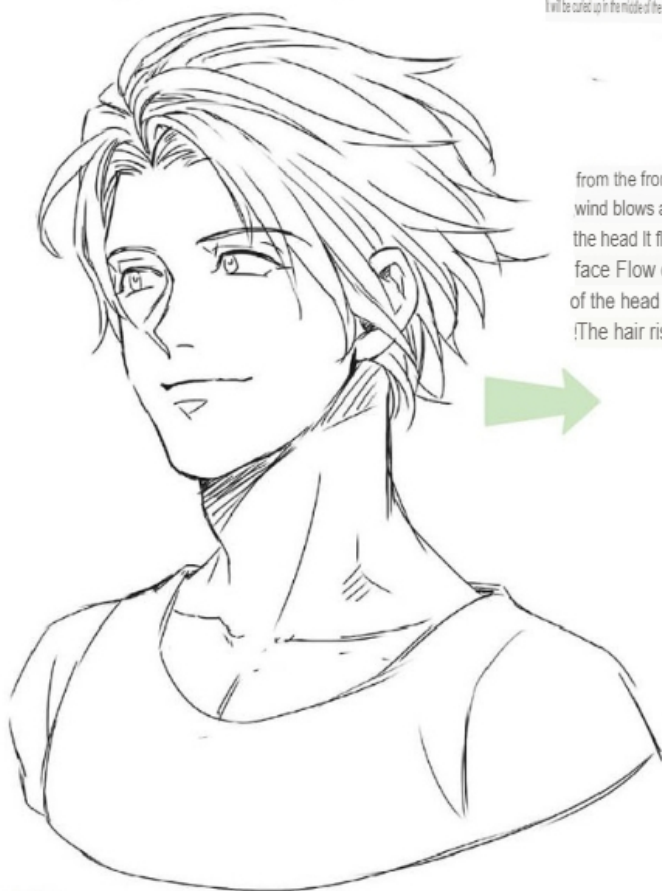

It moves in the same direction as the wind, but changes the way the hair flows depending on the strength of the wind. You can see it. In the case of a weak wind, the tip of the hair will flow gently.

How to draw attractive hair

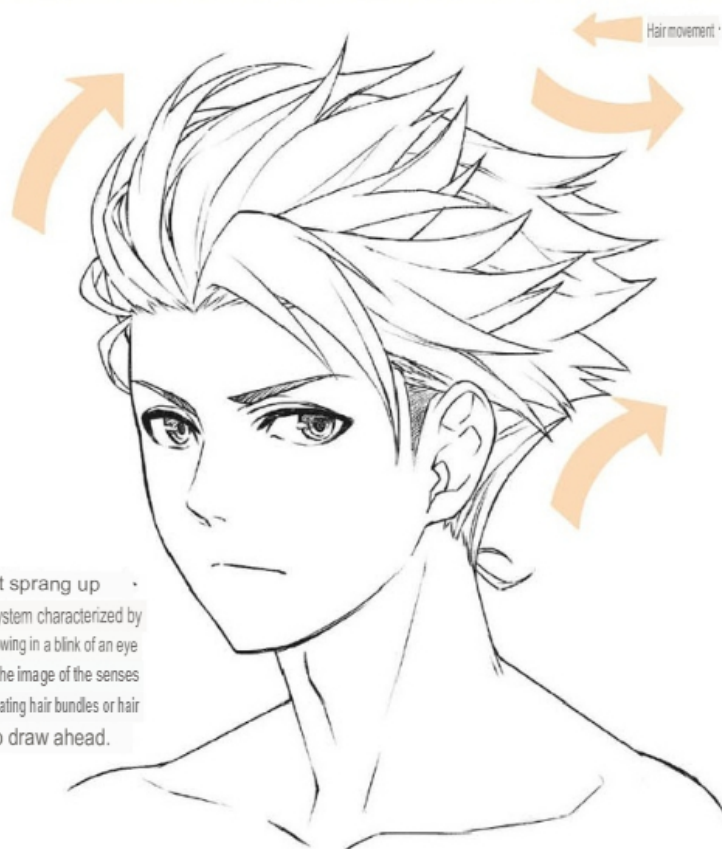

Lessons 01

To express the characteristics with the fluttering of the hair

Just as the pose with the movement looks better than the stick standing, if you put the movement on the hair, the character's appeal stands out. First, use the movement that flutters in the wind to draw a hair that does not have a dynamic texture pose.

Fluttering from the front the tip of the hair jumped up. Draw a thin bundle of hair on the entire back of the head

I have a lot of hair in my hair, and I have a lot of hair in my hair.

As a result, the expression is more natural and the hair is more natural.

Fluttering from the side

The movement of the hair fluttering in the horizontal direction is very possible next to the female character. It makes your hair look beautiful, even if a man is a man, kindness and it gives a soft impression such as calmness.

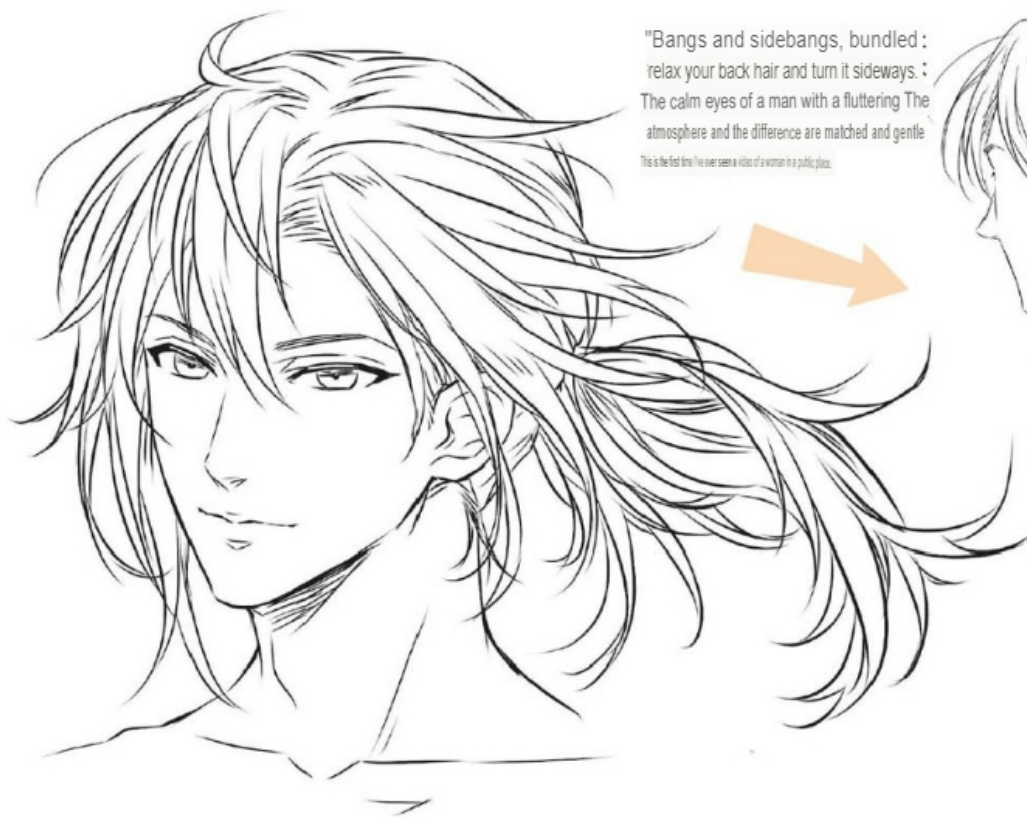

a few strands of hair spread from both sides. In the movement of the twin tail fluttering like a girl of heaven, I express the true explosion man.

A long cloth like a towel receives the wind and if you imagine how you're going to do it, you're going to have to do it. The shape of the hair bundle is easy to capture and become.

"Bangs and sidebangs, bundled : relax your back hair and turn it sideways : The calm eyes of a man with a fluttering The atmosphere and the difference are matched and gentle. This is the first time I've ever seen a video of a woman in a public place."

► Fluttering to spread semi-long hair

You can also use the following methods:

Express emotions with bouncy movements

While the fluttering of the hair expressed the character's characteristics and atmosphere, when the hair is bounced by the movement of the body, the character's character is transformed. It is a great way to express the feelings of the actors. Let's look at the difference in feelings by taking 2 types of movements: motion and stillness.
